DEFENDANT’S MOTION FOR A NEW TRIAL

Comes now the defendant in the above styled matter and, through undersigned counsel, moves the Court for a new trial upon the following grounds:

1. Because the verdict and sentence are contrary to the evidence and without evidence to support it;
2. Because the verdict and sentence are decidedly and strongly against the weight of the evidence;
3. Because the verdict and sentence are contrary to law and the principles of justice and equity.

Wherefore, the defendant prays that these grounds be inquired of by the Court, that a hearing be held, and that a new trial be granted. Defendant will file an amendment specifying errors when the undersigned counsel has received and reviewed the trial transcript.

This the ____ of _____, 2003.
